Ceci n'est pas un château.

Ceci n'est pas un château. Dies ist kein Schloss.
